

Introducing Honeysuckle Health as nib's new agent for provider agreements

From 1 October 2020 nib appointed Honeysuckle Health to act as its agent in relation to nib's Hospital, MediGap and First Choice networks. Honeysuckle Health is a specialist healthcare data science and services company set up by nib, in partnership with Cigna Corporation (Cigna), in late 2019.

Under the new arrangement, Honeysuckle Health will represent nib as its agent to manage all of nib's existing hospital, medical and ancillary agreements as well as negotiate future agreements and funding models.
